

About Our Tours

Guelph Arts Council celebrates the cultural heritage of Guelph by offering six different walking tours on selected Sundays from April to October (excluding July). The tours are an opportunity for tourists and locals alike to learn about Guelph's history while taking in the beautiful architectural and natural features of the city.

During post-war expansion, many of Guelph's downtown stone buildings were destroyed. We aim to foster appreciation of the remaining buildings to help ensure their preservation. Guelph Arts Council thanks its dedicated volunteer Tour Guides for sharing their passion for Guelph's heritage.

Available on each tour are keepsake booklets, which are also available at Guelph Arts Council, The Bookshelf, 41 Quebec St., Guelph, and Guelph Civic Museum.

Special group tours can be arranged by contacting Guelph Arts Council.
