CENTRAL EUROPE FROM THE CARPATHIANS TO THE DANUBE

An exploration of Poland, Slovakia, and the Czech Republic, including twelve UNESCO World Heritage Sites!

14 days, Tuesday, April 14, to Monday, April 27, 2020

This leisurely coach tour covers Central Europe from Krakow, the fabulous former capital of Poland, one of Europe's most beautiful cities, and the Carpathian mountain peaks, to the vineyard-covered hills of mysterious Moravia and its hub, the city of Brno, in the Czech Republic, all the way to Slovakia's charming capital, Bratislava, nestled on the banks of the mighty Danube. We return via Wroclaw (formerly Breslau) in Silesia, to Warsaw. This tour is offered in collaboration with Guelph Arts Council and is conducted by historian Jacques Pauwels, author of 'The Myth of the Good War,' 'Beneath the Dust of Time,' and 'The Great Class War 1914-1918,' who will lecture on the fascinating though often tragic history of this part of Europe. This tour will feature a combination of deluxe and first-class hotels as well as excellent food!

Tour cost, based on double occupancy, from Toronto: $4,895, INCLUDING all taxes and other surcharges - "land only": $3,775 - Single room supplement: $775

PROPOSED ITINERARY:

Day 1 - Tuesday, April 14: Late evening departure from Toronto for Warsaw on a non-stop flight of LOT Polish Airlines. Dinner and a light breakfast will be served on board.

Day 2 - Wednesday, April 15: Arrival at 12:40 PM in Warsaw, where a private coach will be waiting to take us via Lublin, once the home of a thriving Jewish community (short visit if time permits), to Zamosc, a small town in southeastern Poland. Dinner and overnight in the centrally located four-star/first-class Hotel Zamojski (<http://www.hotelzamojski.pl>).

Day 3 - Thursday, April 16: Morning visit to the old town of Zamosc, created in the 16th century as an 'ideal city' by the standards of the (Italian) Renaissance and the first of numerous UNESCO World Heritage Sites visited on this trip (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/564>). Our exploration of this urbanistic and architectural jewel will include the breathtaking main square, Rynek Wielki, with the city hall and the 'Armenian' houses, the palace of the town's founder, Jan Zamoyski, the Cathedral, and the fortifications (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Zamo%C5%9B%C4%87>). We also visit the excellent regional museum, bursting with works of art, religious objects, ancient furniture and clothes, weapons, etc. (<http://muzeum-zamojskie.pl/o-muzeum>). Afternoon at leisure, and dinner in a typical restaurant.

Day 4 - Friday, April 17: Departure from Zamosc after breakfast. We motor to one of the greatest attractions of this part of Poland, the impressive baroque/rococo castle of Lancut and its park (<https://www.zamek-lancut.pl/en>). On to two UNESCO World Heritage Sites, first, the wooden medieval Church of St. Michael in Debno (<http://whc.unesco.org/en/documents/114514>), and second, the amazing Salt Mine of Wieliczka, described as "a labyrinth of underground galleries, dating back to the Middle Ages, with works of art, underground chapels and statues sculpted in the salt, making a fascinating pilgrimage into the past" (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/32>). Then we continue to nearby Krakow, Poland's third largest city and capital for three centuries, a major cultural centre, and the home of a famous university, founded in 1364, where Copernicus was a student. Accommodation in the 4-star/first-class Hotel Park Inn, located just outside the historical city centre (<https://www.parkinn.com/hotel-krakow>), and dinner in its restaurant.

TWELVE UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITES SCHEDULED TO BE VISITED ON THIS TOUR:

1 Old City of Zamosc - 2 Church of St. Michael in Debno - 3 Wieliczka Salt Mine - 4 Historic Centre of Krakow - 5 Auschwitz Birkenau Nazi Extermination Camp - 6 The Dunajec River Gorge - 7 Holy Trinity Column in Olomouc - 8 Tugendhat Villa in Brno - 9 Lednice-Valtice Cultural Landscape - 10 Churches of Peace in Jawor and Swidnica - 11 Centennial Hall in Wrocław - 12 Historic Centre of Warsaw

Please note that visits to some of these sites (e.g. the Dunajec River Gorge) are subject to weather conditions and time constraints!

Day 5 - Saturday, April 18: After a leisurely breakfast, comprehensive sightseeing tour of Krakow, one of Europe's most beautiful and interesting old cities, with all the great sights, especially Wawel Royal Palace, Rynek Glowny, Europe's largest medieval market square, the medieval Cloth Hall, the Church of Our Lady, the Gothic buildings of the Jagellonian University, the statue of Copernicus, picturesque streets such as Ulica Klonowicka, the superb Gothic Cathedral, and the Jewish Kazimierz District with the Temple Synagogue, Corpus Christi Church and Ulica Szeroka. Old Krakow is a UNESCO World Heritage Site (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/29>). The rest of the day is free to explore this wonderful city on your own. A classical music concert or folklore show may be available this evening on an optional basis.

Day 6 - Sunday, April 19: Excursion to nearby Oswięcim, better known by its German name, Auschwitz, for a visit to the emblem of the horrors of the Holocaust, the biggest and most infamous of all Nazi camps, not just a concentration camp, but an extermination camp, now a memorial and a museum – and perhaps the saddest of all UNESCO World Heritage Sites (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/31>).

Return to Krakow in the afternoon and free time until dinner in the hotel or in a nearby restaurant.

Day 7 - Monday, April 20: Departure from Krakow after breakfast. Driving south, we soon enter the Tatras, the highest and most rugged range of the Carpathian Mountains, a kind of natural border between Poland and Slovakia. Together with its Slovak counterpart, the Polish Tatras are classified as a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve. Our sightseeing will focus on the resort of Zakopane and surrounding area. Weather conditions permitting, we will ride on a raft through the Dunajec River Gorge, a tentative UNESCO World Heritage Site (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/tentativelists/2102>; see also https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Dunajec_River_Gorge) OR take a cable car to the top of Mount Kasprowy, situated at an altitude of almost 2,000 m, to enjoy spectacular views of the mountains on both sides of the border (<http://kasprowywierch.biz/english.html>). Dinner and overnight in the 4-star/first-class Grand Hotel Stamary in Zakopane (<https://stamary.pl/en>).

Day 8 - Tuesday, April 21: Leaving Zakopane, we cross into the Czech Republic's eastern reaches, an historical land known as Moravia. In the picturesque and lively university city of Olomouc, once the region's capital, we break for lunch and for some sightseeing, focusing on the main square, featuring the huge renaissance Town Hall (with its astronomical clock) and the baroque Holy Trinity Column, a UNESCO World Heritage Site (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/859>); other sights of interest are two baroque fountains and the Cathedral, named after legendary St. Wenceslas. In the afternoon we continue through the fertile Hana plain to the Czech Republic's largest city after Prague, Brno. Our home here for three nights will be the centrally located five-star/deluxe Hotel Grandezza (<https://www.grandezzahotel.com>). Dinner in the hotel's restaurant.

Day 9 - Wednesday, April 22: Morning sightseeing in Brno, with as highlights the city's castles, Freedom Square, Old City Hall, St. Peter and Paul Cathedral on Petrov hill, fine historic churches and palaces in styles ranging from Renaissance to Art Nouveau, and attractive green spaces such as Luzanky Park and Denis Gardens. But the absolute highlight is likely to be our visit to the local UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Tugendhat House, a villa built by famous Bauhaus architect Mies van der Rohe around 1930 for a local Jewish industrialist (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/1052>). Afternoon free for shopping and/or individual exploring. Amateurs of the genre may want to visit the St. James Church's ossuary, the biggest in Europe after the Paris Catacombs, and/or the Capuchin Monastery where some mummified monks are displayed in an underground tomb. Brno also has a number of excellent museums, such as the Moravian Gallery, the second largest art gallery in the Czech Republic, the Museum of Applied Arts, the Museum of Romani (a.k.a. Gypsies) Culture, the Museum of Decorative Arts, and the Museum of Genetics named after Mendel, the famous biologist, "the father of genetics," who worked and died in Brno. This evening, dinner of Moravian specialties and wine in a typical restaurant, likely enlivened by traditional folk music!

Day 10 - Thursday, April 23: Full-day excursion to Bratislava, the small but very attractive capital of Slovakia, nestled on the banks of the mighty Danube at only a stone's throw from the Austrian border. The main sights here are the hilltop castle and adjoining Slavin Monument, with great views of the city, the Cathedral, the New Bridge across the Danube, and the attractive medieval inner city with narrow, winding streets as well as fine square featuring historic churches, monasteries, palaces, and monuments to Slovak poets and national heroes. Also some free time to shop, explore on your own, and have lunch. Returning to Brno in the afternoon, we will view some of the sights in the Lednice-Valtice Cultural Landscape, yet another UNESCO World Heritage Site (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/763>). No group dinner this evening.

Day 11 - Friday, April 24: We leave Brno after breakfast and head north, via Olomouc, to Bouzov, a village dominated by a mighty castle that used to belong to the Teutonic Knights but was taken over by the SS during the Nazi occupation. On into northern Moravia's High Ash Mountains (Hruby Jeseník), better known by its German name, Altvatergebirge, as this area was long inhabited by the Sudeten Germans. En route, your guide will give a talk about the history of Czechoslovakia from its birth in 1918 to 1993, when Czechs and Slovaks decided to separate – or, as some would argue, separation was imposed on them. Crossing back into Poland, we are in Silesia, a region that belonged to Germany until 1945. Lunch break in the ancient town of Kłodzko. In the afternoon we visit one or (time permitting) both of the “Churches of Peace” in Jawor and Swidnica, rather unusual Protestant places of worship in a predominantly Catholic region and classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/1054/gallery>). Arrival in late afternoon or early evening at our 5-star/deluxe Hotel Radisson Blu in the Silesian capital, Wrocław, known in German as Breslau (<https://www.radissonblu.com/en/hotel-wroclaw>).

Day 12 - Saturday, April 25: Morning sightseeing tour of Wrocław, with focus on the very attractive old town, known as “Polish Venice” because of its scenic location on a number of arms of the Oder River, featuring an impressive main square, an exuberant city hall, a baroque university building, and the usual array of fine palaces and churches. We also visit the city's UNESCO World Heritage Site, Centennial Hall, a pioneering work of modern engineering and architecture, created in 1911-1913 by the architect Max Berg (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/1165>). No group dinner this evening.

Day 13 - Sunday, April 26: After breakfast, departure from Wroclaw. We motor to Lodz, the country's third-largest city, an industrial powerhouse since the 19th century but also a major cultural centre. Here we will visit the Museum of Modern Art, focusing on avant-garde art and featuring works by Chagall, Picasso, Klee, Nolde, Ernst, etc. (<https://msl.org.pl/en/ms/for-visitors.html>) In the afternoon we continue to the village of Zelazowa Wola, located in the bucolic countryside of Mazovia Province, for a visit to the little manor house, surrounded by lovely gardens, where Frederic Chopin, the famous Polish composer, was born in 1810. Early evening arrival in Warsaw, where we check into the historic first-class/4-star Hotel Polonia Palace (<https://www.poloniapalace.com>). Final group dinner in the hotel's fine restaurant.

Day 14 - Monday, April 27: After breakfast, panoramic tour of Warsaw's historic city centre, the final UNESCO World Heritage Site on our tour (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/30>), with monuments such as the picturesque Old Town Square, the imposing Royal Castle, St. John's Cathedral and many other fine churches, the monument to the 1944 Warsaw Uprising, City Hall, and the Saxon Gardens with the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. In the afternoon, transfer to the airport and return LOT flight to Toronto, departing at 5:05 PM and arriving at 8:20 PM.

Within 30 days prior to departure: 100% of tour cost

RESPONSIBILITY:

The acceptance of the initial service to be provided under the tour shall be considered an acceptance by the tour member of those conditions. We also reserve the right to decline, to accept or retain any person as a member of the tour. We reserve the right without notice, to withdraw any part or all of the tour. Factors such as airline schedule changes, hotel overbookings, inclement weather, travel warnings by the Canadian Government etc. may necessitate changes in the itinerary. There may also be other circumstances in which changes become necessary or advisable.

By commencing the tour, I agree to the release and agreement as included below.

RELEASE & AGREEMENT:

By placing my deposit and commencing the tour I understand and agree to the following:

1. That all tours are delivered in conjunction with other service providers, including but not limited to travel agent and booking services, airlines, hotel and accommodation providers, transportation providers including but not limited to coach, train and ferry services, restaurant providers, and local guides. Pauwels Travel shall not be held responsible for the failure by any person or company to render any transportation, lodging or other travel service to be provided on the tour. All hotels, transportation and other travel services are provided subject to all the terms and conditions under which they are offered to the public generally.
2. I know that tour programs include walking, and may include hiking and fitness programs that have potential hazardous activities associated with them. I should not participate prior to approval by my physician. I assume any and all other risks associated with these events included but not limited to falls, contact with other participants, the effects of the weather including high heat and/or humidity.
3. To release, indemnify and hold harmless Pauwels Travel Bureau and their affiliates (which term shall include parents, subsidiaries, officers, directors, shareholders, agents and employees of Pauwels Travel Bureau as well as Pauwels Travel themselves) (the "Released Parties") from, and agree not to sue the Released Parties for, any claims that I may have arising from, or in connection with, any personal injury, bodily injury, mental anguish, emotional distress, physical, property or other damage that I may suffer from any cause whatsoever related in any way to my participation in this tour. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, I release, indemnify and hold harmless the Released Parties from, and agree not to sue them for any personal injury, bodily injury, mental anguish, emotional distress, physical, property or other damage that I may suffer from the Released Parties' negligence other than from intentional or reckless acts by such parties. I further agree to release, indemnify and hold harmless the Released Parties from any and all acts of God, war (whether declared or undeclared), terrorist activities, incidents of politically motivated violence, illness or quarantine, strikes or government restrictions or the acts or omissions of any other agents over which the Released Parties have no direct or indirect control, including, without limitation, airlines, railways, bus companies, hotels, shipping companies, guides and sub-contracted agents or tour operators. This release also includes activities not offered that may be considered risky. I further release any Tour Directors, bus drivers or other individuals involved in my tour.

4. That the air carrier's liability for loss of or damage to baggage or property, or for death or injury to person, is limited by their tariffs, or the Warsaw Convention, or both.
5. That Pauwels Travel Bureau shall have no liability or responsibility for me when I am absent from activities, such as visits to friends or relatives or during stay-ahead/stay-behind option periods if the stay-ahead/stay-behind period does not include the services of a Tour Director.
6. To abide by directions of my Tour Director or other leadership personnel during my tour. Failure to do so may result in my termination from tour immediately. I understand that to disobey such rules or directions are to waive the right to any refund, and that I may be sent home at my own expense. The participant and family undertake full financial responsibility for any damage caused by the participant and agree to pay his/her return home on the first available flight, should his/her behavior be deemed detrimental to the welfare of the group.
7. To abide by all local laws when in Canada and abroad, including those concerning drugs and alcohol. (Minors must have parents' permission to use alcohol even if the local law would otherwise permit them to.) I understand that if I abuse or disobey such laws, even unintentionally, I waive my right to a refund, and Pauwels Travel may send me home at my own expense. I also understand that should local authorities be involved, I will be subject to the laws of the country I am visiting.
8. That if I become ill or incapacitated, Pauwels Travel and its employees, or a designated chaperone may take any action they deem necessary for my safety and well-being, including securing medical treatment (at my own expense) and transporting me home. Pauwels Travel retains the right, in its sole discretion, to contact the traveller's parent(s) and/or guardian or emergency contact with regard to health issues or any matters whatsoever that relate to the traveller's tour. These rights transcend any and all privacy regulations that may apply. In the event of a medical emergency, Pauwels Travel will attempt to cause appropriate treatment to be administered, and the traveller authorizes Pauwels Travel to do so. Pauwels Travel, however, makes no warranty that it will be able to cause effective (or any) emergency treatment to be administered.
9. That Pauwels Travel may use any film likenesses taken of me and any of my comments while on a tour for future publication and also use my contact information for future Pauwels Travel communications.

A WORD ABOUT GROUP AIRFARES:

Please note that when booking one of our air inclusive tours, Pauwels Travel has negotiated reduced rates with the airline that we are able to confirm and lock in up to 359 days before travel. While it is wonderful to share the savings and flexibility this provides with you, our valued guests, the privilege does come with some restrictions. In some cases it may not be possible to collect frequent flyer miles, you may not be able to check in online 24 hours before travel, or you may need to try checking in with your ticket number rather than your booking reference and, in almost ALL cases we are not able to offer advanced seat selection.

It is the airline that makes the reservation and has control over the booking so it is their policy, not ours, that prevents us from assigning specific seats. If a request is made, it is passed on to the airline by our staff when they submit the names to the airline, i.e., 30-60 days prior to departure. Calling us several days before you leave will not change this fact nor will getting upset with our staff.

If a certain type of seat is indispensable to you, we suggest that you book our tour on a "land only" basis and make individual flight arrangements, in which case you may be able to get the seat of your choice; Pauwels Travel would be happy to assist you with that reservation at absolutely no additional charge. We will offer you the best fare available, but please note that this can only be done once a tour is a guaranteed departure because your individual airfare's conditions are likely to involve cancellation penalties. We thank you in advance for your kind understanding of the above!
